EIHAB Human Services Holds 1st Annual Turkey Giveaway

SPRINGFIELD GARDENS, NEW YORK, November 22, 2017 – On November 18th, 55 staff and individuals at EIHAB Human Services came together to distribute 200 turkeys to people in need. The nonprofit's 1st Annual Turkey Giveaway was held simultaneously at the agency's Brooklyn location and outside the Charlie Meaney's parking lot in Valley Stream, New York.

Trooper Foods, a past sponsor of the agency's Annual Gala and Casino Night, donated the turkeys for EIHAB to distribute. The Brooklyn giveaway also featured a canned food drive for victims of Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico.

Commenting on the events, Ahmed Hegazy, CEO/Executive Director of EIHAB Human Services, said, "Our 1st Annual Turkey Giveaway was a tremendous success and a great opportunity for our individuals to experience community inclusion and give back to others. Many thanks to EIHAB's individuals and staff for participating, and to Trooper Foods for generously donating the turkeys and making Thanksgiving brighter for so many New Yorkers in need."

About EIHAB Human Services

EIHAB Human Services is a multi-lingual, multicultural not-for-profit organization serving children and adults with developmental disabilities and behavioral health challenges. EIHAB Human Services began its mission in 1997, providing Case Management services to a population of ten before expanding into a multitude of quality of life enhancement services delivered to hundreds of individuals in New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

EIHAB's philosophy of care supports individual choice, meaningful treatment and restrictive use of psychotropic medications and other procedures. The agency's team of direct support professionals, teachers, therapists, social workers, clinicians, and administrators uphold the highest standard of service delivery and a shared vision of exemplary, individual-centered practice.
